STAT 9. [redacted] National Security Agency, and John S. Warner met with Larry Conrad to acquaint him with the fact that the National Security Agency had a similar problem, as did the Agency, on S.1035. Conrad had hoped to get Senator Bayh and Mr. Warner together today but we will now try to do it tomorrow morning before the Subcommittee meeting.

STAT 10. [redacted] Met with Mr. Fensterwald, Counsel for the Judiciary Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure, to discuss S. 928, the right of privacy act. After discussion, Mr. Fensterwald indicated he could agree for Long to accept in lieu of the words in section 2514 "any other serious threat," the words "to collect foreign intelligence information deemed essential." He indicated that it was the concern of some of the members that "serious threat to security of the U.S." was too broad and could encompass many things other than the types of activities they would visualize being conducted by NSA and CIA. [redacted] was also present and indicated he would like to check this out with General Carter when he returns to the area tomorrow.
